AND: Name of parent or guardian _____
(hereafter indicated as "parent") responsible as parental authority for Name of student _____ (hereafter indicated as "student") residing at complete Address _____

Conditions

The establishment commits to offer educational services at the preschool, elementary, or secondary level in English pursuant to the Programme de formation de l'école québécoise as set by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport. The language of instruction is English. The school year begins on August 27, 2009, and ends on June 23, 2010.

The establishment commits to offer to the student, at the request of the parent, Jewish studies, which form an integral part of its educational program.

The establishment commits to provide the parent a copy of this contract prior to the beginning of the school year. It also commits to provide the parent, at the beginning of the school year, a copy of the regulations of the school (which can be found in the annual handbook at the Elementary and in the student's agenda at the Secondary), the activities calendar, the name of the student's teacher if the student is in preschool, or in the other cases, the names of all of the student's teachers as well as the name of his responsible person, if applicable.

The parent commits to pay to the establishment the fees for this contract by respecting the payment schedule in the Information on School Fees Package. He also commits to take notice of this contract and to ensure that the student respects the general rules of the establishment.

The parent commits to collaborate with fundraising and to participate with the volunteering activities organized by the establishment.

The parent is liable to follow the recommendations of the establishment in providing pedagogical or psychological support for the student, particularly in facilitating the integration of a student coming from another school.

The establishment may refuse admission or re-admission to a student who does not respect, or whose parent does not respect, the rules and regulations outlined in the contract. It may also refuse the re-admission of a student who no longer fulfils the eligibility criteria.

The sections of the Loi sur l'enseignement privé that follow are an integral part of this contract:

70. No institution may require payment from a client before performance of its obligation has begun, except for the payment of an admission or enrolment fee not in excess of the amount determined in accordance with the regulations of the Minister.

No institution may require payment of the client's obligation, or balance thereof if admission or enrolment fees have been paid, in less than two reasonably equal instalments. The dates on which the instalments become due must be fixed in such a way that they fall approximately at the beginning of each half of the duration, calculated in months, lessons or credits, of the educational services for which the student is enrolled.

71. The client may, at any time and at his discretion, cancel the contract by giving notice to that effect by registered mail. The contract shall be cancelled by operation of law from the receipt of the notice.

72. If the client cancels the contract before the provision of services has begun, the institution cannot demand compensation in excess of the amount obtained by subtracting the admission or enrolment fees from the lesser of the following two amounts:

the maximum amount determined in accordance with the regulations of the Minister, and an amount representing not more than 1/10 of the total price agreed upon for the services.

73. If the client cancels the contract after the provision of services has begun, the institution may demand only the following amounts from the client:

- 1) The price of the services provided calculated in months, lessons, or credits as specified in the contract;
- 2) as penalty, the amount obtained by subtracting the admission or enrolment fees from the lesser of the following two amounts: the maximum amount determined in accordance with the regulations of the Minister, and an amount representing not more than 1/10 of the total price agreed upon for the services.

74. In the ten days following the cancellation of the contract, the institution must return to the client the amounts it has received in excess of those to which it is entitled.

75. The client may demand that the contract be annulled if he becomes aware that the student was admitted to the educational services concerned in contravention of the provisions governing admission to those services.

76. No person may depart from the provisions of this chapter by means of an agreement which provides otherwise.

Furthermore, no client may waive a right conferred on him by this chapter.

Medical authorizations:

The parent that cannot be reached to give his consent authorizes the establishment, in the case of an illness or accident regarding the student, to provide the student with adequate treatment.

The parent commits to, in the case of an allergy to the student, respect the protocol of dealing with allergies established by the establishment.

The parent commits to, in the case of a chronic illness, provide the establishment with an emergency medical intervention plan, signed by a doctor.

The parent commits to inform the establishment of an allergy or chronic illness that may happen during the school year.

The parent authorizes the student to participate in all educational outings anticipated as part of the educational services.

The establishment commits to not deed, transfer, or sell this contract.
